Colville Tribal public safety measures remain in place through June 26

Public safety measures across the Colville Reservation remain in place as passed by the Colville Business Council in CBC Emergency Resolution 2020-266.

Through June 26, CBC Emergency Resolution 2020-266:

- extends the prohibition of public gatherings of 10 or more people and public congregations for purposes of public entertainment, recreation, food or beverage service, and similar activities unless permitted by a separate and distinct Resolution.
- extends the prohibition within the exterior boundaries of the Colville Reservation on camping, fishing and hunting by non-tribal members, and of all camping in groups numbering ten or more people.
- clarifies the prohibition of non-tribal members “from boating, gathering, hiking, and any other form of outdoor recreation within the exterior boundaries of the Colville Reservation.”
- extends the order requiring residents of the Colville Reservation to remain at home except for essential activities, except as amended by separate and distinct Resolution.
- extends the order prohibiting non-essential business activity on the Colville Reservation except as amended by separate and distinct resolution.

For emergencies, call 9-1-1.
