CBC extends partial government shutdown, additional public safety measures

The Colville Business Council approved a resolution to extend the partial shutdown of the Colville Tribal Government, as well as other public health safety measures previously taken, to prevent the spread of COVID-19 on the Colville Indian Reservation through midnight on May 29.

Along with extending the partial shutdown of the Colville Tribal Government, the approved resolution expressly:

- extends the prohibition of public gatherings of ten or more people
- extends the prohibition of camping by non-tribal members or groups of ten or more people
- extends the closure of fishing and hunting by non-tribal members within the boundaries of the reservation.
- extends the requirement of residents to remain home except for essential activities
- Extends closure of the Colville Reservation to visitors.

For emergencies, call 9-1-1.
