Tribal EOC continues work to prevent spread of COVID-19 on Colville Reservation

NESPELEM - The Colville Tribal Emergency Operations Center continues to work to prevent the spread of COVID-19 on the Colville Indian Reservation by working with area businesses, senior meal sites and other partners.

Currently, the EOC and Colville Tribal Area Agency on Aging are working to deliver over 520 meals to elders across the reservation daily. Along with meal deliveries the EOC and AAOA are working to assist elders with chore services outside of the home.

These include lawn chores, such as mowing, weed eating and edging, as well as pruning some trees and removing yard debris. Chore services further include hauling garbage and providing or chopping firewood. AAOA and EOC further assist with delivery of groceries and prescriptions.

The goal has been to protect our elders, helping our community members stay home and stay safe.

If you have a loved elder, or if you are an elder, who is not receiving services, please contact the Colville Tribal EOC at 509-634-7350.
