CBC extends public safety measures through June 26

Along with extending the Colville Tribes' partial government shutdown, Colville Business Council has extended public safety measures through June 26 in a continued effort to prevent the spread of COVID-19 on the Colville Indian Reservation.

CBC Emergency Resolution 2020-266:

- extends the prohibition of public gatherings of 10 or more people and public congregations for purposes of public entertainment, recreation, food or beverage service, and similar activities unless permitted by a separate and distinct Resolution.
- extends the prohibition within the exterior boundaries of the Colville Reservation on camping, fishing and hunting by non-tribal members, and of all camping in groups numbering ten or more people.
- clarifies the prohibition of non-tribal members "from boating, gathering, hiking, and any other form of outdoor recreation within the exterior boundaries of the Colville Reservation."
- extends the order requiring residents of the Colville Reservation to remain at home except for essential activities, except as amended by separate and distinct Resolution.
- extends the order prohibiting non-essential business activity on the Colville Reservation except as amended by separate and distinct Resolution.

For emergencies, call 9-1-1.
