CBC extension includes closure of reservation to visitors, closure of non-tribal fishing

Included in the extended closure of the Colville Indian Reservation, which was passed Friday by the Colville Business Council, is the closure of the Colville Indian Reservation to visitors as well as the closure of non-tribal fishing on the reservation.

The emergency resolution also:

- extends the prohibition of public gatherings of ten or more people
- extends the prohibition of camping by non-tribal members or groups of ten or more people
- extends the closure of fishing and hunting by non-tribal members within the boundaries of the reservation.
- extends the requirement of residents to remain home except for essential activities
- extends closure of the Colville Reservation to visitors.

We know COVID-19 continues to circulate through out community. Please continue to stay home and stay safe to protect yourself, your neighbors and your family.

For emergencies, call 9-1-1.
