Released from isolation 14

Colville Reservation remains closed through June 26

The Colville Business Council has extended the closure of the Colville Reservation and other public safety measures through June 26 in a continued effort to prevent the spread of COVID-19 on the Colville Indian Reservation.

To date, the Colville Reservation has seen 17 cases of COVID-19, one of which was discovered post-mortem. Of those, 15 have been released by medical professionals from isolation as of Friday, June 12.

CBC Emergency Resolution 2020-266:

- extends the prohibition of public gatherings of 10 or more people and public congregations for purposes of public entertainment, recreation, food or beverage service, and similar activities unless permitted by a separate and distinct Resolution.
- extends the prohibition within the exterior boundaries of the Colville Reservation on camping, fishing and hunting by non-tribal members, and of all camping in groups numbering ten or more people.
- clarifies the prohibition of non-tribal members “from boating, gathering, hiking, and any other form of outdoor recreation within the exterior boundaries of the Colville Reservation.”
- extends the order requiring residents of the Colville Reservation to remain at home except for essential activities, except as amended by separate and distinct Resolution.
- extends the order prohibiting non-essential business activity on the Colville Reservation except as amended by separate and distinct Resolution.
